

Pavlina Klemm & The Pleiadians

Second Message from the Pleiadian Beings on the Current Situation [25.03.2020]

THE FOLLOWING you will find a new message from the Pleiadians, which was given to their channel medium Pavlina Klemm on March 25th. This message is particularly important for all of us at the present time, as it brings hope to us in a situation where many see no good. Through hope we can support the global planetary process positively and assist all of humanity.

Dear Messengers of Light!

We, the Pleiadian beings, are coming to you together with a huge number of other peace-loving alien civilizations and light beings. We support you in your time and in your space and transmit frequencies of increased hope, strength and gratitude into your hearts.

The increased cosmic frequency of hope helps you to survive the time you are experiencing right now. Hope connects you to your expectations that you have developed in your mind in the time of your various incarnations here on Earth.

Your hope connects you with other peace-loving beings who, thanks to their never-lost hope, have entered the present, in which peace and divine loving laws prevail.

Your hope, which you carry within you, never left you and let you incarnate on this planet at this time of this incarnation.

Your hope connects you to your new, positive future.

How long you have been waiting for this time!

How long your soul was occupied by fear!

How long your soul was squeezed into the rooms of your body and could not show its true beauty and size!

How long your soul has been waiting for this time!

Your hope has never dried up and it has led you into this time. In this time when the bridges collapse that connected you to the dark past.

In the near future, this time will bring wonderful opportunities and huge positive changes that the human mind cannot yet imagine.

With the arrival of free energy on your planet, incredible opportunities open up for your whole community. This will materially secure the entire human society.

Planet Earth is going through planetary processes that bring you free energy.

Planet Earth is inexorably approaching the divine order, connecting directly with the line of cosmic orbits that lead to the divine order.

The planet Earth is going through a huge transformation process.

At the beginning of April 2020, he begins to cross the cosmic gate, which has enormous transformative properties.

Planet Earth is approaching this gate inexorably. Around Easter, he will be in the space of this cosmic gate, and Earth and its people will be able to transform what does not belong in the divine order.

Systems that are artificially created by beings for their benefit and gain will fall. Because artificially created systems are not divine and loving.

You people, do not lose hope and look forward to a positive future, created in loving divine order.

In an order of unconditional love.

While this process will bring big changes, it will bring you a peaceful future.

It is a great pleasure for us to inform you that the energetic processes that are taking place are moving us to tears of joy and happiness.

We know, of course, that many human individuals do not understand the current situation and are desperate about what artificially created news is brought out by current public media.

We would therefore like to inform you with today's message about the energetic processes that are taking place behind the scenes and that serve the overall process of your ascent.

We have often informed you that the human community will experience this ascent as a whole. We have told you that all human souls, whether they are in a human body, in the human sky or in other spaces and times, will ascend as a whole.

This joint ascent is only possible on condition that the collective consciousness of the people and the energetic processes of the earth are at a certain level of consciousness.

And this level has been reached!

Planet Earth is just releasing energies from within that are not part of its naturalness. It frees itself from programs that have been artificially encoded in it and have been used to manipulate humanity.

He dissolves entire energy systems that he had to carry within him and that prevented him from entering the natural divine order.

In these days, ten thousands of human souls of children and adults who have been tormented by the dark beings and who therefore died physically inside the earth, have ascended from the inside of the earth to the human sky.

These souls have been liberated - and these are the days when they find their peace and quiet. The light beings help them with this transition and heal the emotions that they had to go through. Terrible memories that her human mind had to experience are transformed into light.

Other trapped human souls who have been in the interstices of earthly dimensions for decades, centuries or even millenniums will also find their heavenly home in the next few days. Her emotions and memories are also healed. Let them receive your blessing so that their transition to human heaven can run harmoniously.

Through this process described above, the human community will be whole in the time of Ascension, and it will succeed in Ascension.

You are currently going through enormous processes that will set you free!

Please do not let yourself be unsettled by messages that reach you "from outside" from the artificially created systems. These messages will no longer be valid.

Let the frequency of hope, peace and joy flow into your hearts.

Bless your new, coming, positive future.

We are with you and accompany you.

Peace with you, peace with us.

Your Pleiadian companions
