

Sixth message of the Pleiadians on the current situation [10th of June]

You dear people,

please do not worry about the future!

We know what feelings are going on in your human soul right now. We sense that many of you are worried about what the next days, weeks and months will be like.

The situation on Earth changes practically from one day to the next. Things are happening that you could not even have imagined in your wildest dreams.

Things that change this time period, this space and time.

Things that had to and must come so that the whole mosaic of time and space of human reality continues to fit together.

Things that every human soul had planned before incarnating on planet Earth and knew how they would play out.

Yes, every human soul has planned the course of the present incarnation. Just like you, who are reading these lines right now. Every soul. Every one.

Some souls chose to play a positive role.

Some souls have chosen a negative role.

Some souls have chosen a passive role.

But all human souls have known before their incarnation that the descent to Earth is part of a vast plan and a subsequent colossal ascent.

Every human soul knew before its descent to Earth what its task would be.

Every human soul knew in detail how its role would unfold.

Even though the transition to the Golden Age is unstoppable, the human community is experiencing times that it has never experienced in its past. This makes it all the more difficult for every human spirit to find its way through this time.

From our point of view we can say with certainty that good wins! The human timeline is heading in a positive direction. In a very positive direction.

It is easy for us to move in spaces and times, and therefore we can look at the future of humanity from our point of view.

Around the Easter holidays this year, the timeline of the human future has taken the right direction. But this means a purification and reparation of various systems of human community. And it involves systems that have existed on the planet for hundreds or even thousands of years.

These cannot be cleaned and rectified within a few weeks or months.

But the purification has already begun, the reparation has already begun – and although this time is very turbulent, good will prevail!

It does not matter what position you are in right now.

It doesn't matter what situation you're in right now.

Always remember – good wins.

The occupation and abuse of the human spirit, the human soul and the human body will soon be a thing of the past.

Through your presence you are writing history. You are writing a new history of humanity and REALIZING the new FUTURE of humanity! You are in one of the most significant times of human civilization here on Earth!

The extraterrestrial negative civilizations are leaving the depths of planet Earth, and its interior is clearing up. The elevated frequencies of Earth no longer offer these beings good living conditions. An ascent of these extraterrestrial beings to the surface of the earth to live on this planet is not possible for them. Their systems are not designed for this, not for this kind of breathing and not for this intake of oxygen.

A return to their home planets and home galaxies or a necessary reprogramming of their thinking and thoughts to the positive by the divine intelligence will be indispensable.

The heart of Planet Earth will connect with the light of the Central Sun in the coming months and the wounded interior of the Earth will soon be healed by the divine light. The soul of Gaia will soon be restored to its full strength.

As soon as the interior of the earth is healed and cleared by the divine light, the energy and light of the earth will come to the surface of the planet in a stronger way.

This will result in another wave of increased cleansing and rectification of the systems of this planet!

Surely you feel that the energy and light of the earth has increased greatly in recent times.

Surely you feel changes in your mind, your soul and your body.

As the heart of the Earth connects with the Divine Central Sun in the coming months, you will feel the energy and light of the Earth even stronger! Everything that is burdensome that does not belong to you will be shown to you even more, and you will have the opportunity to understand all the burdens and issues even better – and to leave them.

And the negative, artificially created systems of human society will be purified even more and more intensively by the divine light.

The truth is inexorably forging its way to the surface! Human souls who have chosen to play a negative role in this incarnation are experiencing hard times. For even the most negative human beings know that although their spirit plays this role here on earth, sooner or later their soul will decide in favour of their bright being and in favour of divine justice.

Even the most negative beings are bound to the laws of light and love.

Even the most negative beings feel their soul in the depths and know that after leaving their body they have to answer to themselves for their deeds in the human heavenly space.

We can tell you already now that many of these negative beings will choose to make amends for their behavior during their stay in the heavenly spaces and then volunteer to help the human community, in the most diverse ways.

For their souls yearn for love and light in their innermost being.

Please remember that many human beings have been manipulated and abused by dark beings and powers. Although they have agreed to the manipulation and abuse themselves, there will be no room for manipulation and abuse on this planet in future times.

Good and truth will prevail. The current task of every human being is not to stop trusting, even though worries and fear permeate various realities of human life.

Always keep in mind: The good and the truth will win!

We too have lived through a similar time. We have always connected our light and love in our hearts to neutralize the dark elements on our planet. We have created huge energetic fields of light and love. And this energy field has helped us to get out of our difficult situation at that time.

Expand the light of your heart. Your heart is connecting with more pure human beings. Your heart lights will find each other. The distance is not important.

Light and Love will connect and create a field of Divine Light and Divine Love on this planet.

One day you will wake up and find that the lies, which always contain a dark energy, have dissolved into the light of your pure hearts. Lies and their dark words are also energy. Dark energy.

But stronger than anything dark and negative is the power of the light and love of your hearts.

All dark and negative energies are neutralized by the power of the light and love of your hearts. And you must never forget that.

The good and the truth will prevail.

Peace with you, peace with us.
