

Eighth message of the Pleiadians on the current situation [Sept. 25th]

Dear messengers of light!

This time brings with it great changes for the entire human community. Not only human beings, but also animal beings feel these changes. The animal beings are reprogramming their fields of consciousness to positive waves, and they are allowing their outdated energetic imprints experienced in past times to dissolve into light.

Large areas of the nature kingdoms have already connected themselves to the new frequencies of the beginning Golden Age. Plants and animals are beginning to use the symbolism of Sacred Geometry, which has once again become very present on this planet.

Up to now the consciousness matrix of the earth was shifted - it has deviated from its original state. The shifted, deviating matrix has not allowed living beings, plants and animals, to fully and completely live their true energetic sense. The shifted, deviated matrix did not let any population of this planet live as originally planned by the divine intelligence.

The correction of the Matrix – an energetic network of the planet – back to its original state, shape and position was successfully completed in the days of September 2020.

The whole planet is now experiencing huge energetic changes. The core of the earth is rising more and more energetically and in frequency. From the center of the earth energetic rays are emanating, which purify the interior of the planet. Planet Earth and its heart are preparing for perfect and energetic connection with the rays of the Central Sun.

As a result, the energy of the Earth and most of the consciousness fields of the Earth soul Gaia are currently concentrated in its interior. In the coming days and weeks, Planet Earth will activate energetic portals that will open in the oceans, seas and lakes that are more than twenty kilometers in diameter. Through these portals, the planet connects with the consciousness, energy, love and light of the divine Central Sun!

This will create a heightened consciousness on planet Earth and accelerate the connection with the fifth dimension of consciousness. The subtlety of different areas of the earth will be well perceivable.

As the Earth and her soul Gaia is preparing for further energetic steps and is currently concentrating her energy and consciousness for a limited time in her inner being, the Earth is very vulnerable on its surface during these days and weeks. It currently has no energy and power to fully support the human community. Humanity is therefore also vulnerable in some ways.

During this time, human help is absolutely essential for Earth and Gaia! Planet Earth is in a time of preparation for the majestic energetic connection with the Divine Central Sun!

By the end of 2020, this phase of connection will be complete and the consciousness and energy of the Earth will once again be dispersed everywhere. The human community will again feel the full support of Gaia and the power of the Earth.

And through the Earth's prepared portals that have already been activated, as well as through the portals that are still waiting to be activated, the Earth is receiving an immeasurable amount of cosmic energy. This cosmic energy will catapult it into new dimensions of consciousness that have already been prepared for planet Earth by the divine intelligence.

The consciousness of humanity is also beginning to rise very quickly. For the situation on earth to change for the better, 30 to 40 percent conscious people are necessary. When this number is reached, the awakened consciousness will be transferred via morphogenetic fields to all rooms of the planet and the long awaited change can come. We do not claim that all people on this planet will understand the importance of the overall situation. But the mentioned number will be enough for the light on this planet to prevail.

In order to give you an estimation, we would like to tell you what percentage of awakened population has been reached in this very time.

In July of this year, 10 to 15 percent was reached. Now, in September, on this day, 23 percent of awakened inhabitants have been reached. According to this tendency you can see that the percentage is increasing very quickly. In our estimation, and according to the estimation of other light beings who are helping planet Earth, the required number of awakened earthlings will be reached by the end of the year 2020!

Even though the overall development may seem slow to you, huge changes and processes are taking place behind the scenes of your perception.

The return of the Earth's energy matrix to its original state was one of the biggest milestones that was essential for the overall development of the Earth and its population!

You could say that every day and every night changes happen that contribute to the positive development.

We can observe your future from our perspective, because we are in the future and your present is the past from our perspective. We are in a different time and space continuum, and therefore we can safely tell you that the future of humanity is already positively programmed. For the future of Earth, all the energetic imprints that the divine intelligence has prepared for humanity and planet Earth already exist.

It only depends on how fast the percentage of conscious people is reached.

We are convinced that each one of you, who is dedicated to his spiritual development, belongs to this percentage and each one of you contributes with his light and love in his heart to the overall development of the situation of the world population.

Please pass on your light and love.

You are the ones who positively support the overall situation and help other inhabitants of the planet who are not aware of the importance of the overall situation.

You are the ones who are fully aware of the situation on earth.

You are the ones who know the purpose for which you came to this planet.

You are the ones with whom we and an infinite number of other light beings work together and to whom we transmit light information and energetic support so that they may continue to strive towards their goal. To the goal of liberating humanity and the planet from the dark elements and beings that have burdened this planet and its population for thousands of years.

The time of liberation has come. The time of liberation and the time of the beginning of the new positive future.

Remain strong. Stay in your strength. The next weeks and months could be turbulent.

The truth is beginning to come to light. The dark elements and dark constructs are being shaken to the core. But in our view and observation, truth and victory are unstoppable.

Stay in your confidence and stay in the positive. There your path and your goal are hidden.

Soon we will meet in the positive future of your spacetime. Soon we will meet on the consciousness level of the newly created energetic matrix of the Earth.

Time and space are one.

Love and the good triumph.

In these days and in the coming weeks it is very important to support Mother Earth energetically. Her soul Gaia is happy about every positive thought, every positive emotion and every positive action of every awakened person.

Planet Earth had to endure abuse for thousands of years. Now it is time to thank and help it for its endurance, love, energy and space as the earthly home of your incarnation.

Planet Earth is currently dependent on your help. Its transition into new dimensions of consciousness will be accelerated and more harmonious. It will be better able to regenerate and restart itself.

Therefore we would like to ask you to become active for Mother Earth. For your energetic help it is best to go out into nature. If you have the opportunity, look for a place near water.

If you cannot go outside, do this energetic support visually where you are.

If you are in nature, find a place that calls you, so to speak.

Stand in that place and with your purest intention choose the energetic help of Mother Earth.

Breathe deeply in and out. Your breath connects you with the element air.

Connect yourself mentally with the element water. With all water kingdoms of this planet.

Now connect with the sun in the sky. Through this you connect with the element fire.

Concentrate now on the earth beneath your feet. On the element earth.

Then illuminate your heart with golden light.

Visualize in front of your heart the number 8787, which connects you to the purest divine essence that every human being carries within. It supports your intention to help the earth.

Visualize that through your crown chakra the golden light of divine energy is streaming to your heart.

Let this powerful golden light now flow through your body to the center of the earth.

The heart of the earth receives the golden cosmic light and the golden light of your heart.

The cosmic healing light continues to flow continuously through your body and through your heart to the heart of the Earth.

Your heart and your intention heals the heart of planet Earth.

Your heart and your intention heals the planet Earth, and the cosmic healing light helps you.

The heart of the Earth is radiating and healing.

The heart of the Earth is increasing in power, energy, cosmic impulses and information.

Now let gratitude flow out of your heart as well.

Send out this beautiful, loving frequency to the heart of this planet.

And now speak:

»Gratitude, love and cosmic light come out of my heart and heal the heart of planet earth.

The elements air, water and fire support the healing of the earth.

By my purest intention, I am transmitting all the elements and all frequencies of light that can help Planet Earth at this moment.

The healing of the heart of Planet Earth is going on right now.

Time and space are one.

I bless planet earth on all levels of its being.

Thank you, thank you, thank you.«

Your heart continues to shine and is nourished by the golden cosmic light.

We thank you for your help.

Peace with you, peace with us.

Your Pleiadian companions
