

Message of the Pleiadians on the current situation [June 16th]

Dear messengers of light,

All of you who are here and now on this planet have chosen to be a part of this great epoch. You are all a part of this momentous event and are living through important tasks that you have set yourselves for this incarnation.

Events on this planet are picking up speed very quickly. Even though the mass media is hiding the divine truth, the results of what is happening behind the scenes will change the future of humanity for the better.

With the words that we are addressing to you right now, we want to give you strength. We want to give you confidence and perseverance for your positive actions on this planet.

Planet Earth is going through changes that are truly magnificent. Planet Earth is already in higher dimensions of consciousness and invites each of you to accompany it on the path of Light.

Many of you did not expect Earth to raise its light frequency so quickly - even from a cosmic perspective it is happening in an incredibly short time.

Humanity is visiting this planet.

And your planet Earth, which is a mother to each of you, is connected to each of you light-wise and frequency-wise. It is connected to you by virtue of its subtle yet powerful energy that allows you to perceive more and more what life feels like on higher levels.

Every human being now has the opportunity to cleanse their karmic issues that still need to be processed. And Mother Earth is supporting you all on your earthly path.

Each of you has chosen this incarnation - in this time and in this space - independently and voluntarily. Each one of you.

Perhaps you can no longer remember this fact.

At the same time, humanity as a whole is currently processing a karmic issue that humanity has chosen to successfully complete and transform.

The soul of humanity, which is in direct communication with the soul of planet Earth, plays an indispensable role for each of you at this time.

The Soul of Humanity is a noble, luminous intelligence of consciousness that through its light supports each of you with the light of the Divine Source. Do not forget that above the level of your human consciousness there are other fields of consciousness that attract you and support you with their light and love. Do not forget that you are not alone here. Do not forget that the process of dealing with the karmic affairs of humanity follows a predefined plan. Each one of you who has chosen a successful course of your incarnation receives support from the world of light. Each one of you who, by virtue of your purest intention, has chosen a successful course of processing karmic affairs, has connected with the light levels of space and time in higher dimensions.

As we have said, we wish to transmit increased light and love to you. We wish to transmit Light and Love to all of your systems. This phase you are in is ultimately leading you to a state of freedom and peace. However, you are experiencing great burdens that you as human beings are having to bear. We understand you very well. We too once found ourselves in an almost identical situation. Our situation was very similar to the present situation of humanity. Our population also suffered from the occupation and manipulation of dark forces. We too found ourselves in a situation where it seemed as if there was no escape. Many of us believed the manipulative words of the dark beings and accepted their actions. They took a similar path and adopted a similar frequency. Many residents of our community took this low vibrational path because they had forgotten their inner light and their connection to the divine source. Many of them lost their physical life. We had to learn to accept and respect that their choice was voluntary. We had to learn that processing the karmic issues served our common whole. A part of the population that had not forgotten the light in their souls began to act more positively. We began to do group meditations. We began to connect the light of our souls with each other with increased intention. We conducted global meditations, connecting with the divine source and its intelligence. We sent to the soul of our civilisation and the soul of our Pleiadian planets ... gratitude! Our intention to positively and lightfully change the situation at that time increased the light frequency of the entire population. Through our lightful energy work we also helped the souls who had left their physical bodies. We increased the light of the entire population and thereby healed our karmic affairs as a whole. Our efforts and our conviction to free ourselves from the manipulating beings and powers summoned the help of other cosmic companions. They helped us initially on an energetic level. But after a certain time they were allowed by the Cosmic Council to come down to our planet and help our civilisation to build new systems based on divine truth, divine consciousness and the use of cosmic elements such as free energy or plasma.

The dark beings and powers left our planet when they realised that there was no more room for their dark deeds in our community.

We are convinced that YOUR human community will experience a similar sequence of events.

The most important thing for your personal and holistic liberation is love and light in your heart. Every positive thought and emotion purifies and heals the common collective field of humanity.

Each one of you who connects to the world of light is helping others to successfully connect as well.

Each of you plays an indispensable role at this time. A role for your own personal development and for the overall development of humanity.

Every connection to the beings of light and to the world of light illuminates the collective field of consciousness of humanity.

You have already come this far, each and every one of you!

Please do not stop now before the completion of this phase.

There are a greater number of Angels and Light Beings around you than ever before. These Beings of Light have come to your aid. They have come to your aid to keep your hearts pure and not fearfully closed by the manipulation that is being transmitted to humanity.

All these Beings of Light came to planet Earth voluntarily.

Just as you have also come down to this planet voluntarily.

All together you are following an inconceivably great plan. You are purifying the collective consciousness of humanity and ascending into higher dimensions of consciousness. Through your light work and love you are helping your children and all subsequent generations of human civilisation.

Now we would like to send you very personal supportive frequencies ...

Open your heart and accept our love, our energy, our support, our light.

Accept the healing frequencies of the cosmos.

Accept the gratitude and love of the divine source and all the light beings that are around you.

In this moment we are all in loving connection and connectedness with you.

Now. Now and here.

Time and space do not matter.

Breathe deeply and connect to the heightened frequencies of light that are flowing to you in this moment.

Observe how your heart radiates with light and how it absorbs all positive light frequencies.

Your heart passes on all the positive frequencies to your soul, mind and body.
Breathe in and breathe out.

Now you can say supportively ...

"I accept all healing frequencies with gratitude.

I am love.

I am light.

I am gratitude.

I am freedom.

I am divine existence.

I am.

Thank you. Thank you. Thank you."

We thank YOU for your energy work and for your connectedness.

Your Pleiadian Companions
