

Message August 2022

We greet you again from our heights and from our dimensions.
We bring you words and frequencies of comfort, gratitude, love and perseverance for this most significant epoch of all times of humanity.

Each of our words that makes you feel the vibration and frequency of our lightful dimensions of consciousness brings you a wave of light that illuminates your organism, soul and spirit. Every contact that has taken place so far between you and us has made your heart and consciousness shine at least for the duration of the contact. Every contact that has taken place so far, whether through words or energetically, has connected you with our lightful, loving dimensions and with our vibrations of love. Every contact that has taken place so far has increased the light vibration of your cells and raised the frequency of joy and happiness within them. Joy and happiness are the divine essence of your cells. In each encounter with you, we have brought you a wave of the higher dimensions of consciousness so that your soul remembers its greatness and its light.

In every encounter, your soul has remembered its divine vibration, color, love and origin. In each encounter, the seed of light, hope and joy of the new future has sprouted in your hearts. All our common contacts have led to the fact that many of you have remembered and through memory have got rid of the dark veils that have inhibited further spiritual development.

Each of you is going through a significant time, through a significant incarnation and through a significant development. Each of you. Even though to many of you your personal steps and the steps of the human community seem infinitesimal, you are taking your personal steps and the steps as a human community at tremendous speed. We know that from your point of view this development seems very slow because you are still bound by the quantity called time. But from our point of view, we can see that your personal evolution and the evolution of humanity as a whole is incredibly fast.

Within only two years of this exciting key time, millions of people have remembered their soul light, who until then did not even think about their soul light and about their divine origin! But this outstanding time has made them remember where the truth is and in what and in whom are light frequencies.

Open your hearts even more and with your opened heart you recognize people and beings who vibrate in the same light frequency as you. You are not alone. You are already very many!

From our perspective, we can confirm this. From our point of view, you look like shining stars who have chosen a luminous existence on this planet. You are lights of the universe. You are star seeds.

Remain in your trust and remember that you are already very many. Remember this fact in every moment when you feel that your actions are not bringing adequate results. The third and fifth dimensions of consciousness still overlap. You can often notice this by losing the sense of earthly time.

Often you can observe that time sometimes speeds up or slows down, so to speak. You can also often observe the events around you that seem unreal to you. As if you do not belong to this happening and as if you were only spectators. In these moments you are practically standing on the border between 3D and 5D, which are still overlapping.

The worlds of these two dimensions or realities show themselves to you more than before. Even though you can learn to perceive how these different realities feel. You learn the subtle perception, which you have partly lost in past times.

Often you will see sparks or flashes of light.

These are the lights of your Light Beings that are just making their presence known to you, showing you the light of their home dimensions.

Surely you feel more strongly than before how true love, unconditional love feels.

How love feels between people and love that flows to you from the world of light.

You become more subtle and that makes you true human beings again.

Beings of love and joy.

And parallel to all these phenomena, new systems and new groups of people are emerging in the background, ready to bring innovations to the new human community.

Some of them have already come to the surface and are pointing the human community in the right direction step by step.

Orient yourselves to what is essential.

Orient yourselves to what is true, to what is divine and to what makes you human.

We are with you and accompany you.

Your Pleiadian companions

We bring you a positive affirmation programmed by us, which connects you with your divine essence. It connects you to everything divine that you carry within you and that is around you.

My heart is filled with divine love.

My heart is filled with divine light.

My heart is filled with divine truth.

My heart is filled with divine freedom.

I am a child of the universe.

I am a child of light.

I am a child of love.

I am purest divine essence.

After this affirmation, say your first name out loud 3 times in a row. Your name connects you with your energy and power, which you have brought for this incarnation from the divine source.
