

Message from the Pleiadian Beings - November 2022

Dear messengers of light

we greet you from our luminous planes and bring you new joyful information on planetary development.

This time is unique and evolutionary!

Currently there is an increased activation of the human DNA strands. The sun's rays are activating them with their crystal energy, preparing them for the arrival of peace-loving star peoples and communities who have been preparing themselves for a long time.

Civilisations and communities that are still in the Earth's interior are also preparing for the arrival.

With the arrival of these civilisations, the perception and consciousness of human individuals increases. Therefore, the human being is being increasingly prepared at this time and the cosmic frequencies are helping it. The human DNA changes its structure and becomes crystalline. The human soul expands lightfully and connects with worlds and spaces that are lightful and full of cosmic divine information.

The civilisations and communities within the Earth connect frequency-wise with the human civilisation and send out signals to it about their existence. The human being receives this information and perceives it as encouraging frequencies full of confidence in the time to come. The civilisations that have been within the Earth for millennia are now preparing to surface at the right time and connect their consciousness and information with the human individuals.

The light beings within the Earth, who are responsible for the human community, are also exchanging information with the beings of the cosmic world about how they can best help humanity and its development.

The human being feels that the beings of light are more present than ever.

The human being feels that the beings of light fully support and guide it.

The human being feels that the frequency of trust that flows to it uninterrupted helps it to transition into the positive period.

The human being feels that he is supported by an infinite number of light beings, by his ancestors and by his cosmic family.

The human being begins to feel connectedness with the surrounding world of this galaxy after thousands of years of manipulation.

It feels connectedness with other people of good will and with other beings from light spheres.

The human being feels that the positive power of the collective brings positive progress and development for the overall situation.

The sustaining power of the positive timeline of humanity is continually increasing. More and more people are ascending this positive timeline. People who have remembered their essence and decided to leave the artificially created timeline of the negative past once and for all.

One person after another is stepping out of the negative, low vibrational time period and moving onto the line of the luminous axis.

Every day people are evolving in consciousness. They are evolving at a great pace. The human mind is freeing itself from the space of artificially created reality.

Everything is happening at record speed and an unprecedented amount of people are remembering.

The Cosmic Council rejoices in this development. For the human community has been helped in the background by the peace-loving star nations and light beings, but the steps to liberate one's own spirit and the steps to liberate one's own emotions must be taken by each human being himself or herself and without outside help.

The light beings have reminded every single human being of his lightful, divine origin and are still doing so. They help him to free himself from the low vibrational levels by his own will and by his own strength.

We are very grateful that a huge amount of people is freeing themselves from the artificially created matrix and thereby connecting their consciousness with the spaces of higher consciousness. Thus the intelligence of the higher consciousness is spreading in the spaces and times of planet Earth.

Everything is proceeding according to the plan of the Cosmic Council. Everything is happening even faster than we had expected. People who have already developed their consciousness feel that our words are true. These people feel that a tremendous, hitherto invisible force is guiding them and giving them support and energy for their actions and for their liberation.

These people know that they will receive clear confirmation that their path is right when they connect with their heart.

We are grateful for each of you.

We are grateful for the light that you carry within you.

We are grateful that with your light you are liberating your own existence on this earth and the existence of this planet earth.

We thank you for your love.

Your Pleiadian Companions

Peace with you, peace with us.
