

Message of the Pleiadian Beings, July 2023

Dear readers, dear friends of cosmic information, in the last message of June, the Pleiadian beings spoke about cosmic light waves that have started to come to our planet from the spaces of the Galaxy, with which we were not connected until now. They spoke about the intense effects and influences that these waves have for us.

The July message is about even deeper information that explain what these cosmic frequencies will mean for us in the near future.

For those of you who have not yet read the June message, I am including the relevant text here for your information.

June Message

In these days and weeks cosmic light waves come to you, which raise the light intensity and frequency of planet Earth even further.

With the arrival of these cosmic waves, man receives another opportunity to expand his consciousness and, for the time being, to merge at least partially with the cosmic world and its infinity. The luminous power of these cosmic waves can be seen in the mood of man. Every person gets the opportunity, thanks to these cosmic influences, to clear up his inner negative affairs and to give them away forever, if that is what the person in question wants and if he is ready for it.

You may feel sadness, a certain upset, melancholy or other emotions that seem to you as if they do not belong to you. They are feelings and thoughts that you may not even remember because they come from accumulated issues from the distant past or from previous incarnations.

The light-filled high vibration of these waves also cleanses your negative holographic energy imprints, through which you are still connected to your negative past.

These light waves are coming to you from your galaxy. From spaces of your galaxy, with which you were not connected until now. The planet Earth, which is already vibrating enormously full of light, has attracted these cosmic waves to itself.

The high vibration of this light will not only have an effect on the expansion of your consciousness and on the raising of the light vibration of your cells, but it will also increase the information systems of your brain.

Your mind will be able to develop even more in the future and express its creativity and ingenuity. It will be able to connect with different times, spaces and interstices of any event. He will begin to perceive multidimensional space for the first time. These cosmic waves will bring another great, gigantic opportunity for the human beings who have decided to enter higher dimensions of consciousness. We will inform you about this in time, during the next weeks.

Go into nature often during this time, meditate and let the cosmic light flow into your systems. Free yourselves from the negative and prepare for a new, positive future.

The energetic raising of the light vibration of planet Earth is proceeding according to the plan of the Higher Intelligence and the Higher Consciousness.

We are with you and accompany you.

Peace with you, peace with us.

Your Pleiadian companions

July Message

Dear messengers of light

We are contacting you from our time period. We are with you. We are with you and we are observing the situation and all that is happening on this planet.

The situation is developing at an optimal speed, even though many inhabitants of this planet feel that what is happening is rather slow.

Please do not expect that the correction of the mistakes, manipulations and violence of any kind, which have taken place in this low vibrational dimension or level, will be carried out within a few months or years.

We are talking here about physical changes that many are waiting for and in which many people put all their strength, thoughts, energy and any expectations. This attitude robs many inhabitants of this planet of a lot of life energy.

Please let everything proceed according to the cosmic plan and direct your energy and thoughts to levels of life that bring you, your family and the community in which you live, a benefit, the necessary energy and lightful impulses.

Only in this way will you free yourselves from expectant thoughts and free yourselves from the energy that robs you of strength.

Everything goes according to the plan prepared before. An innumerable amount of extraterrestrial communities and civilizations help with this happening. They are helping consciously, energetically and also physically.

However, a significant part of this colossal rise in consciousness of the human community depends on the purity of your hearts and the purity of your thoughts.

Only pure hearts and pure thoughts succeed in attracting the cosmic light to themselves and raising the luminous energy of their surroundings.

Focus on yourselves. Each one of you. This time is unique, magical, revolutionary and colossal. This time, this moment, is about programming the future of the human community. Not all people have chosen to ascend and evolve their consciousness.

Even whole peoples have chosen to be in lower vibrational levels because their development requires it. Do not forget that many peoples have come to planet Earth from different planets or star systems. Many have come here from distant galaxies.

For many peoples it is already certain that their journey will take them to low vibrational planes, because their past and their evolution require it.

The community begins to divide physically and subtly at this time. This is what the Higher Plan says. Every human being knew this before coming down to this planet.

Every human being acts and lives according to its higher plan. Please accept the decision of each of you. Please accept that each person is tied to their higher plan and acts according to it, even if it is sometimes painful for you who have chosen the luminous path.

You could say that the time when we have been reminding and reminding you to become aware of your purpose and your soul light is slowly ending.

Now a time is coming when almost all human beings already know or suspect inwardly where their path will lead them. This time brings a physical and subtle separation.

For each of you, the path you have been working on lately is planned.

The time of transformation and remembrance has lasted since about the year 2012. Now the time of conscious decision is dawning. The decision to orientate yourself on your own, previously planned path and to follow it.

This and the next year will be decisive for you. Decisive for your future. Get rid of your last burdens. In this time nothing else plays such a big role as the transformation of your own burdens, even if these burdens are now only minimal.

Get rid of everything negative and burdensome so that you can get on your planned path.

From the energetic point of view, huge cosmic waves of light are coming to you, which started to stream onto this planet in the days of June. More such waves are coming to you, further raising the light energy of this planet.

Thanks to this energy, light portals to higher dimensions of consciousness will be created. These portals will be located in highly energetic places on this planet.

They will be places that will connect you to the higher dimensions and also, in time, allow you physical access to those dimensions.

These portals will serve you as energetic, healing and regenerative places during this time. Over time, you will use them to transition into the fifth dimension of consciousness.

Your expanded consciousness will intuitively guide you to these portals. Near these portals you will feel absolutely happy and enlightened, and you will be full of thoughts about the new luminous future. Even though this information may seem impossible to you, believe that new worlds are opening up right in front of you, new possibilities and a new future that we have been talking about for many years and about which we are bringing any information.

A world is opening up to you that you have been waiting for and that is similar to our world, which is full of light and light-filled information from divine intelligence.

Very soon you will feel how we live. Soon you will feel how simple and glorious it is to be in these light spheres.

You will use the properties of light and the properties of the gravityless field, which will bring you a connection with the free cosmic energy. The information we are about to convey to you is not a vision of a distant future, it is a vision of a future only a few years from now.

For some highly evolved luminous individuals, it is the vision of a future of only a few more months.

The new luminous future is just opening for you.

Peace with you, peace with us.
